

CURICULUM VITAE

Predrag Bošković was born in Pljevlja (Montenegro) on March 12, 1972.

He finished primary and secondary school in Podgorica. He graduated from the Faculty of Economics, the University of Montenegro, in 1996. He received his MA in Econometrics and Politics from the Faculty of Economics in Belgrade in 1999. He published numerous research papers and publications and participated in the implementation of major development projects in Montenegro.

He speaks English.

He started his professional career as a Teaching Assistant at the Faculty of Economics in 1996.

Throughout his career, he held senior positions, including being a member of the Parliament of Montenegro and serving as the Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Serbia and Montenegro, Minister of Economy, Minister of Labour and Social Welfare, Minister of Education in the Government of Montenegro and the President of the Board of Directors of the Coal Mine in Pljevlja.

He has been leading the Women's Handball Club since 2006. From 2011 to 2016, he was the President of the Board of the Montenegrin Handball Association. During this period, the club and national team he led achieved the best results in the history of Montenegrin handball, including the Olympic silver medal.

His commitment and success in this sport have been recognized internationally. He was elected Member of the Executive Committee of the European Handball Federation 2012 – 2016 and became Vice President of the European Handball Federation in November 2016.